Songs on the Potomac Series Features Singer-Songwriters

Songs on the Potomac is a brand new free concert series sponsored by the Fairfax County Park Authority which features the talents of singers and songwriters. The program is made possible through a partnership with Azalea City Recordings and the generous support of the Folklore Society of Greater Washington.

Performances will be held at Riverbend Park located at 8700 Potomac Hills Street in Great Falls, VA. The series begins in June and takes place each Saturday from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Concerts feature three performers in an acoustic format and artists will swap original songs and share the stories behind the songs.

On June 3, 2006 performers include Ruther Logsdon, Greg Hardin and Mary Battiata. The June 10th series features Mary Sue Twohy, Karen Colins and Geff King. June 17th features Rachel Cross, Laura Baron and David A. Alberding. The final series will take place on June 24th and feature the blues of Jessee Palidofsky, the folk and jazz and gospel inspired music of Carey Creed and Michelle Swan. All performers have received numerous nominations for prestigious awards, appeared on radio and performed in a wide variety of venues.

Concerts are cancelled if it's raining. If there is the threat of bad weather, call 703-324-SHOW (7469) after 3 p.m. for cancellation updates. For more information about this series contact the Public Information Office at 703-324-8662 or visit us online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances/#songs>.
